Anita Phillips is a Western Australian visual artist with an appreciation and respect for "place". She looks to experience and paint landscapes of isolated, challenging and solitary beauty... Raised on a farm in the Wheatbelt of WA, many of Anita's works are grounded in her love of the big skies, long horizons and harsh weather of the Australian landscape.

Anita works mainly in oils, on canvas and panel. Plein air painting and drawing has become an increasingly significant aspect of her process and continues to inform her studio work.
